Submission Criteria: SPN Department Column (within JPN)

- The manuscript should be original and not have been previously published.
- The first author is required to be an SPN member.
- Manuscript Guidelines:
  - In a Word document and should be no longer than 10 manuscript pages in length or 2800 words*.
  - Use Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial font style with a font size of 11 or greater.
  - Double spaced.
  - APA 7th edition guidelines should be followed.
  - You do not need to include an abstract.
- Corresponding author information should be included on a title page at the front of the manuscript, which does not count in the page limitation discussed above. The title page should include the title of the manuscript (descriptive titles preferred), the author(s) name(s) and credentials (i.e., RN, CPN, etc, following the name of the author), and the corresponding author’s full mailing address, email address and phone number.
- All authors listed should have contributed to the manuscript.
- Please note that this column is not peer reviewed. The editor will review the manuscript and if it is accepted, the editor will work with the author(s) on the proposed edits. Edits and comments will be made using 'track changes' inside of Word.

*For novice author, max word count (including references, tables, figures) is 4200.

The SPN Department Column is published six times a year. Anticipate up to a 3-month delay from completion to publishing. Only two-novice author manuscripts are published each year in the SPN, they are not peer reviewed.
