

Employment Websites to Assist Individuals with Disabilities to Fully Understand Their Rights and Protections in Seeking, Obtaining and Retaining Employment:

- Americans with Disabilities Act; A Guide for People with Disabilities Seeking Employment; U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC); U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division
- ADA.gov; Information and Technical Assistance on the American with Disabilities Act website provides comprehensive information for users as to the rights and protections afforded by this legislation.
- Federation for Children with Special Needs is a website for parents to foster their understanding, support their needs, and empower them to advocate on behalf of their children.
- Got Transition is a government funded website on health care transition resources for AEA with special health care needs/disabilities
- ILRU Directory of Centers for Independent Living \(CILs\) and Associations – 2017 website provides links to independent living centers by state. Independent Living Centers are administered and staffed by individuals with disabilities that provide advocacy, resource and support services.
- Independent Living USA website provides information on independent living centers as well as links to the independent living centers nationwide.
- Kids as Self Advocates \(KASA\) is a self-advocacy organization for youth with disabilities. Resources and peer support and networking and leadership development are provided.
- U.S. Department of Labor, Disability Resources website provides links to other resources on benefits, civil rights, community life, education, and employment, emergency preparedness, health, housing, technology, and transportation.
- Yourable.com is an online community for individuals with disabilities; information provided include free and public services, transportation, benefits, health and travel.
- Youth Pathways to Postsecondary and Employment is a gateway website to technical assistance and resource programs on employment and postsecondary options for AEA.